ECONECTA

Introduction

ECONecta is committed to promoting sustainable and responsible tourism in Southern Mexico that benefits both the environment and local communities. By exploring the secrets of nature and immersing yourself in the culture and traditions of native peoples, you are supporting the economic development of the region.

At Hilos de Vida, a handmade embroidery workshop run by Mayan women, you can discover the beauty of their traditions and culture expressed through their unique garments. By promoting their artisanal creations, you are not only supporting the preservation of Mayan heritage but also contributing to the local economy in a responsible and meaningful way.

Join us in making a positive impact on both people and the planet through responsible tourism!
